

BURSTING WITH BRIGHT IDEAS

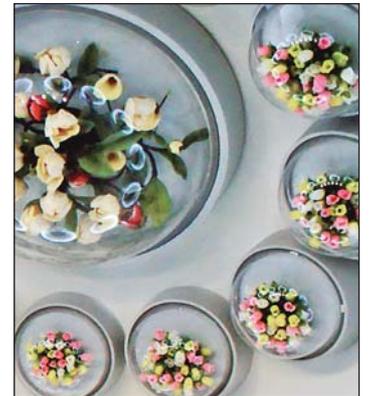

PHOTO BY ZHOU KE / XINHUA

The Expo 2010 Shanghai is as much a celebration of creativity and innovation as anything else, as highlighted here by street performer Steve Cousins of Australia. PAGE 4

PAVILION

Space Home Pavilion is simply out of this world

Crowds are thronging to find out more about 'space breeding' and the recent launch of China's second lunar exploration probe as the country takes a closer look at the 'final frontier'. PAGE 2

COVER

Fair's fair for volunteers as they land new jobs

The Private Enterprise Pavilion has organized job fairs for its graduate volunteers to help repay them for 12 months of hard work, but they're not the only staff to have benefited from the Expo. PAGES 10, 11

MAP

Get your mittens on some hairy crabs this fall

Check out some of the top spots in Shanghai to feast on this local delicacy plucked from Yangcheng Lake in Jiangsu province, which locals say can balance the body's yin and yang. PAGES 8, 9